Modern Women Entrepreneurs. [The story behind their success]

Introduction.

- Entrepreneur: A person who starts a business and willing to take risk in order to make money
- Entrepreneurship: Doing things in new and better ways
- Women entrepreneur: Women entrepreneurship is an economic activity of the women who think of a business enterprise, initiate it, organise and combine the factors of production, operate the enterprise, and undertake risks and handle economic uncertainty involved in running a business enterprise.

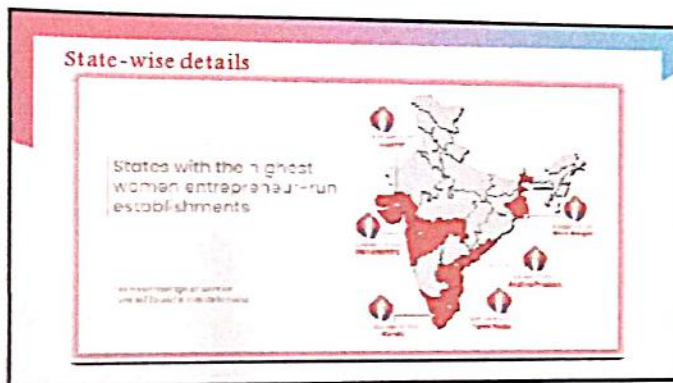

Challenges faced by women entrepreneurs

Vani Kola, MD Kalaari Capital

- Born: 1964 (Age 59 years), Hyderabad
- Education: Arizona State University, Osmania University
- Spouse: Srikrishna Kola
- Known for: Venture capital in India
- Education: Osmania University (B. Eng), Arizona State University (M. Eng.)

- ### Findings & Suggestions:
1. Finance is the life blood of every business organization, but accumulating money as a main source of business becomes difficult for women entrepreneurs. Bankers and other money lenders doubt the capabilities of women and hesitate to provide the funds for start-ups. Hence it is suggested to facilitate financial support to women and provide loans at low or zero interest to motivate women entrepreneurs.
 2. Training and development facilities plays major role in shaping the career of an entrepreneur. So, government at municipal, state and national level should establish training programs for women.
 3. Conferences, workshops, seminars, and webinars can be organized for encouraging women. Forums must be established where prospective women entrepreneurs can talk and chat with successful entrepreneurs and discuss their queries and share knowledge.

- ### Findings & Suggestions:
4. Government should frame certain policies and rules which are required for women empowerment. Help desk, websites and support forums can help in getting instant help.
 5. India is country of diversified culture and full of villages. To ensure the growth and development of our heritage and culture, more number of home-based businesses should be established, so that women can effectively coordinate with household and entrepreneurial responsibilities.
 6. In general, women feel procedure of securing loans in banks is out of her boundaries, so to avoid this myth, the bankers should provide the loans by adopting user friendly and simple methods.

Thank you..
